Economists: "The era of corporate supremacy in the international trade system is coming to an end"
as leading Palestinian activists have condemned the UN Security Council's decision to strip Gaza of its international status and its population subjected to starvation. Urgent action is required to stop the carnage.

In response to Israel's ongoing impunity, we, as Palestinian organisations, call for a total global energy embargo against Israel until it ends the genocide and its regime of Apartheid

This call includes previous demands from the Palestinian General Federation of Trade Unions (PGFTU) to "all trade unions and workers associations, and transportation and ports workers...in oil, gas, and metals producing countries" to stop feeding the Israel war machine, and to stop "export...to countries supporting the Israeli onslaught on Gaza."

Building on this work, today we issue an urgent call to workers, environmental activists, human rights groups, civil society and states to take immediate action to:

1. Stop all energy exports to Israel.
2. End all imports of Israeli energy.
3. Divest from extraction projects, and joint ventures with Israeli energy corporations.
4. Stop all energy exports from Middle East and Global Majority countries to the United States, United Kingdom, Germany, and other imperialist states supporting Israel in its campaign of genocide.

Energy embargoes driven by trade unions and popular demands have played a significant role in anti-colonial history, both in West Asia and further afield, and can act as significant points of pressure. Today, they offer new means of enforcing international law and impelling the Israeli machine to cease its murder.

genocide possible! We call on you to take action in your workplaces, at ports, outside oil companies and in any arena in which energy flowing to Israel can be disrupted!

Now is the time to act and build on the historical mobilisations for Gaza, to end the genocide and bring forward a liberated Palestine.
